THURSDAY MORNING, FEB. 4.

SPEED THE DAY. We cannot help regarding it as a for tunate circumstance for the country that the administration of Gen. Grant is so near at hand. When we read of the jobs and jobbery, and of the rings, plots and endless schemes of the corruptionists to filch money from the Government in some shape or other, and under some pretext or another, we cannot but inwardly exclaim hasten the day when a man shall come into power whose face and influence will be set against these baneful and destructive influences with the firmness and hardness of an adamantine wall. It is startling to read even the titles of the schemes of number of hunder that the Wash-schemes of number that the dealer despote the despoiler because he is strong and sisters to yield themselves a willing sacrifice to make as much money on each individual watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of other watch as he may on the sale of schemes of plunder that the Washington lobby ngents are endeavoring to put through Congress or the various departments. We long to see the reformer Grant, followed by every honest man in Congress and lowed by every honest man in Congress an and backed up by every tax payor in the land, in a position to let loose every appliance than an honest indignation which the sneers and jeers of time serving politicians, nor the violence of the despoiler cannot wrest from you. can suggest for the discomfiture and disgrace of these walting barpies. The New York Sunday Times very pointedly remarks that "the whole nation is apparently entering upon a career of financial dissipation," and says that "all depends upon the incoming administration of Gen. Grant, and upon the influence he may be able to exercise over the elements of destruction that drawn. now rule in the Federal capital."

The Capital Question. Several votes were taken yesterday in the House of Dalegates on the locaany agreement on the question, and without any better prospects for an agreement than heretofore, so far as we are informed. We presume the balloting will proceed from day to day. The Capital question is now the only special

We publish a speech on the question this morning and hold ourselves ready to publish others, provided members will get them up very short. Our space is necessarily limited, and we must give as much variety as possible and not too much of any one thing. We hope, therefore, that those who desire to have a say on the Capital question will bear in mind that time and space are both precious, and that long speak ing is not only expensive to the State but tiresome to their hearers and unpopular with the cutside public.

MR. SEWARD .- The Chicago Times,

Whatever may be the faults or weaknesses of Mr. Seward as a politician, he has done excellent service as Secre-tary of State. In the second and third years of the war, there was a strong in-clination on the part of both France and Great Britain to acknowledge the independence of the Confederacy, and they would probably have done so had it not been for what some of his admirers had called 'the magnificent lying of Mr. Seward." There is a good deal of the fox about our Secretary, and in this Alabama matter he would not be likely to consent to terms which he thought were not the best that could be had.

From a report of the proceedings in the Richmond Examiner, we take the folagainst the "new plan:"

Mr. Balwin who was Speaker of the Confederate Congress during the rebel-lion, first took the stand. He said universal suffrage was a fixed fact. He had been to Washington, had talked with the powers that be; the authorities received him courteously, listened attentively, and seemed to be favorably impressed. The Democrats applauded, and thought that the "new movement" in the right spirit, and capable of producing the good hoped for.

Here Colonel Tate wished to know what the committee had proposed and what had been accomplished? The committee had proposed univer-sal suffrage and universal amnesty, with the understanding that some of the most odious features of the odious Underwood Constitution be stricken 50 out. viz: the homestead clause, county organization and the iron-clad features.
20 It was to be said there was no possible way, not even the shadow of a chance, thought it was inevitable, and to hope to escape it was hoping against hope. At this stage of the meeting some gentleman offered a resolution endorsing the action of the Committee of Nine, This was the match to the magazine; without it all would have passed off quietly and without discussion, but as soon as the resolution was read, a loud and animated call was made for Chris tian! Christian! Col. Christian responded to the call and charged Messrs, Baldwin and Stu-art with deserting their party and friends. They cannot, he stated, say that to advise negro equality before the law, under any pretext, is not for them and us a clear surrender of principle they are committed to the fact that it is the sum of all evil-that come what may they will never submit themselves, their children and this proud old Com-monwealth to the humiliation and degredation of negro equality, and yet, my fellow citizens, they are here to-day advising you to ask for universal suf-trage! Strange inconsistency! Surren-

He thought it would have been proper for thought it would have been proper for the Committee of Nine to have ascertained the views and feelings of the people before going to Washington. ## WALTHAM WATCHES

To Buyers of Watches Everywhere.

The greater part of the jewelers of the United States keep Waltham Watches, and cordially recommend them to their customers, notwithstanding the fact that less profit is made on these watches than on any others generally sold by the trade. The reason of this is, that the reputation or the Waltham Watch renders it an easy sale, and the der ourselves a willing sacrifice to the result is, that, although the dealer does not

It is a well known fact in manufacturing, that the greater the number of articles manufactured by one establishment, the smaller will be the cost of each individual article. Keeping this in view, our policy has always even to sell our products at the lowest possible price in order to secure large sales, and thus enable us to manufacture watches at a minimum cost. WE BE-

Stuart and Baldwin for this last great movement; most sincerely hoped they would not be ungrateful; had no doubt but that ere long they would be willing to exclaim, "Well done, thou good and faithful servants, enter thou into the offices prepared for us from the foundation of the Government."

The meeting then adjourned.
